FOLKS AND THINGS.

Liquor seizures have been scarce the past two months.

Regular monthly meeting of the city council occurs next Monday evening.

City Undertakers Burpee superintended 12 interments in January, 5 of which were non-resident.

No keeper of the almshouse has yet been appointed in place of Mr. Young, deceased. Mrs. Young is at present in charge.

Candlemas Day, which was Saturday, was "fair and bright," from which, according to the old saw, winter "takes another flight."

We return our thanks to T. H. Frawley for several copies of the New England Galaxy, of the vintage of 1821, published in Boston.

The ladies of the M. E. church will hold a levee at the vestry on Wednesday evening, Feb. 6th. Fancy articles and refreshments for sale, and supper served from 6 to 8.

The truck horse of Chas. B. Morey ran away Saturday, and dashing the sled against the lamp-post near the Berry engine-house badly smashed both the sled and lamp.

Tilston Light Infantry Thursday evening began a course of select assemblies at the armory. The attendance is excellent and of a kind to insure a highly pleasing time each week.

In January only nine criminal cases were tried before Judge Hicks, six being for drunkenness, two for larceny and one for assault. No search and seizure cases have been on trial for over two months.

A series of leap year receptions and hops are to begin at the armory, Friday evening, under the direction of ten well-known married ladies. The invitations emphatically stipulate that no lady can get in unless accompanied by a gentleman.

Winfield K. Kenniston was before Judge Hicks Friday on complaint of J. Merrill Fisk of South Thomaston, who alleged that Kenniston had assaulted him at an entertainment Thursday evening. Found guilty and sentenced to pay fine and costs of $10.24.

A ride in coaches went from this city to Rockport Friday night, and were hospitably entertained at the Carleton House. They assure us that the supper gotten up by Landlord Herbert Lovejoy was one of the nicest cooked and best served of any they ever had eaten.

C. V. Keen, who has had charge of the store at Clark's Island, has sold out to the company. E. J. Frohock of this city has been put in charge of the store. Mr. Frohock is a fine business man and has had a wide experience. He will be a valuable man for the company.

A number of the lady friends of the Rockland Band rushed in on the musicians as they were at rehearsal Friday evening, giving them a regular leap year surprise. A jolly time followed, with music and dancing, and plentiful refreshments which the ladies hadn't forgotten to bring along.

Invitations are out for the fancy dress skating carnival, to be held at Farewell Hall Washington's birthday, under the auspices of the Orphans Club. This without doubt will be one of the most brilliant affairs of the winter. Tickets can be obtained at Spear & May's after Friday the 15th.

A pleasure party of Rockland people went to Union Thursday, and the severe storm arising they had to remain over night at the hotel. A large party from Jefferson also being present created a severe strain on the hotel accommodations of the place, but everybody managed to get a chance to sleep.

W. M. Farlish & Son, piano dealers, Portland, have failed, with liabilities of $27,000 and assets $10,000. They pay 20 cents on the dollar, in notes of four, eight and twelve months. The firm had an agent in this city several months last year, who made a few sales.

Those who love to dance to good music—and who doesn't?—will be glad to know that Meservy's quadrille band is busily rehearsing an entirely new deal in selections for the Hook & Ladder dance which takes place the 14th. Some of the old tunes had become a trifle worn in the arm-chairs and these new and popular selections will be appreciated.

Daniel F. Beatty, the big piano and organ advertiser, is said to be financially embarrassed, according to the "Music Trade Press." The most remarkable thing about Beatty is his advertising, which is something immense. We hear of several instances where his instruments have been bought in this vicinity, and they do not give satisfaction, nor are customers satisfied with their treatment accorded them by Beatty.

The time of city election draws near and local politicians are beginning to rust about for available candidates. We hear the name of Capt. Oliver J. Conant prominently mentioned as a possible republican candidate for mayor—also Hon. A. F. Crockett, D. H. Ingraham, R. Y. Crie and others. No gentlemen are mentioned by the democrats as yet with the exception of Capt. George Gregory, the present incumbent.

The Lewiston Journal of Saturday had an exceedingly interesting article on Maine bred horses, in which the careers of twenty eminent animals were carefully treated. The following was said of Watchmaker, recently owned by H. S. Moor of this city:

This horse is another instance of the good results to be obtained by the union of the blood of Winthrop Merrill and Gen. Knox. His breeding is the breeding of Dr. Franklin Dexter, he being a son of Winthrop Merrill, born by Gen. Knox, reinforced by the thorough blood of his grand dam, who was an English race mare, imported by the late F. O. J. Smith of Portland. He is a standard bred horse, but the writer does not know that he is registered. He stands 15 1/4 hands high and weighs 980 pounds. In color he is black with white legs. After an exceedingly heavy stud service he went to the track in September and trotted nine races, winning seven and a record of 2:30 1/4. He won the stallion races at the Cumberland county fair, beating such horses as Black Pilot, 2:30, Gen. Lightfoot, 2:34 1/4 and Astorbrook Boy, 2:31 1/2; in fact he vanquished every stallion he trotted against. It is claimed that he can trot quarters in 35 seconds, and with good handling he ought to easily beat 2:30. At nine years of age he has only two colts old enough to trot, but it is claimed for them that they can beat 2:40. The rest of his get are one and two years old and they are described as being a good appearing lot and large of their age. He was bred by Harvey Moor, Rockland, and is, we believe, now owned by F. G. Hastings, Vassarville.

A masked skate is held at the rink this evening.

Johnny Mack, of the old Sheridan & Mack combination, is with the Bad Boy company.

The monthly meeting of Anroia Lodge Maecius is held Wednesday evening. A full attendance is desired.

W. G. Moody the liver man slipped and fell on the ice in front of Spear block this forenoon, cutting a bad gash in his head and injuring him severely.

Albert Smith has a large and fine stock of valentines, from the cheapest comes up to the highest prices, breathing the tenderest sentiments of pure love. Call and see them.

The professional card of Dr. O. P. Cushing will be found in our paper. Dr. Cushing comes to our city with excellent recommendations and we trust will win a good practice.

While coasting on Slooper hill Thursday, Marshal Daggett, a young man of 17 who lives near the Pond, was badly injured in the side. He has since been laid up with the injury, but is recovering.

F. H. Crockett the well-known photographer advertised for the next three months cabinet photographs to clubs at greatly reduced prices. Mr. Crockett is a superior photographer and his work always gives satisfaction. We can recommend him to our readers with confidence.

Next Tuesday evening the High School Cadets give an entertainment at the rink. There will be skating from 7:30 to 9 o'clock, company movements and silent manual drill from 9 to 9:30, followed by more skating. The occasion will be made a pleasant one by the cadets, who invite the public to be present. The proceeds go toward a fund to purchase new uniforms. Meservy's quinet furnishes music.

The Denier company that are to appear in Farwell Hall Feb. 13th, give a performance in Portland last week and are thus spoken of by the Advertiser:

Tony Denier's troupe gave a capital entertainment at Portland theater. The pantomime was much the same as has been seen on former occasions. The variety features were excellent. The athletic feats of the Leonhardt brothers were difficult and were gracefully performed. The balancing of Melville was very skillful. The trained dogs were among the best ever shown in Portland. They displayed a degree of intelligence which was wonderful. The donkey attracted the undivided attention of the younger portion of the audience.

There probably will never be so much money made in the granite business again as in former years. Competition is very great and prices rule correspondingly low. Illustrative of this is the recent bidding on the granite pedestal of the Admiral Dupont statue. There were 21 bidders, from Maine to Washington, four being in this state. The bids ranged from $700 to $1797. The Hurricane Granite Co. bid $825, and probably will get the job, as the smaller sum named provided for inferior material. Twenty-one bidders for an $800 job shows that work is scarce.

The Waldoboro News has this interesting item: Sept. 13, 1811, Hiram Cushman of North Waldoboro, while drilling at Rockland was exercising the pieces when he met with the sad misfortune of having one of his arms blown off, all but about six inches, and the other between the wrist and elbow, by the untimely discharge of a piece. Since 1840 he has carried on a large farm, living only in the busiest seasons. He makes all his hay, and it takes a smart boy to beat him with a pitchfork. He makes his own wagon bodies, racks, etc. Eight years ago he drew two thousand line casks to Rockland, a distance of eighteen miles, with a pair of spirited horses. He hauled thirty tons of hay to market three succeeding years, making ninety tons. This winter he tends the barn, gets up the fire wood and stave wood to the mill. How is that for him? Next.

STEAMBOAT SPARKS. Hon. E. Cushing, for many years general manager of the P. B. & M. Steamboat line, and who severed his connection therewith in January, has been evolving plans for a new line that appear to mean business. It is stated that a company of capitalists are negotiating for the fine large steamer, "City of Hartford," of the Norwalk line, which will be put on a route from Boston to Rockland, Machias, Castine and Eastport. Mr. Cushing will be general manager of this line. Capt. Deering of the Lewiston, will command the boat, and the present pilot of the City of Richmond will be pilot, while Mr. Holmes, now second engineer of the Richmond, will be chief engineer. Such a line as this would be a strong competitor of the P. B. & M. A meeting of the Bluehill line of stockholders is to be held next Tuesday, to consider the question of selling the Henry Morrison.

THE CHURCHES.—Rev. Mr. Eastman held his closing services at the Free Baptist church Sunday. He departs with his family for Rhode Island to-morrow. The religious interest in the Methodist and First Baptist churches seems to increase instead of diminishing. The former will continue meetings five evenings of this week. A good work has already been accomplished, and some 25 people, mostly young, have expressed a desire to follow the Master. The Baptists hold meetings every evening except Saturday. The church has become greatly revived and seven young people have expressed a hope in their Lord. The prayer-meeting following the Sunday evening service was a very solemn and impressive occasion, and three well-known young men rose for prayers. A deeper work of grace is going on in our city than appears to the casual observer. The Lincoln Baptist quarterly meeting is held with the church at South St. George this week, beginning to-day.

The vagaries of "Peck's Bad Boy" have occupied much space in the papers for the past two years, and now we are not surprised to see the young rascal making his way onto the stage. We should have had doubt about such stage adaptation being in any degree successful, had any other actor than Frank Daniels essayed to play the "Boy." The success this singular fellow scored as the uncouth boy in the Jollities won him great fame. He is intangible in that particular and difficult line, and abundant opportunity is afforded in this Bad Boy business for display of his unique talents. That the large audience sure to be present Friday evening will be convulsed with laughter is a foregone conclusion. An excellent company of eleven people, appears, including the brilliant little actress Jennie Yeaman, an acknowledged favorite. If you love a laugh you want to keep away from this entertainment. Tickets can now be had at Spear & May's, with no extra charge for numbered seats.

Richard Rankin and Hollis Kirkpatrick go to Portland, near St. John, N. B., this week, to build a patent line-kiln for a gentleman named Miller. They have hired for three months, getting $1 a day each, and all expenses paid. This is good wages, but no more than these two men are worth, for it is safe to say that our city doesn't boast of smarter workmen than Messrs Rankin and Kirkpatrick.

Saturday forenoon a loaded two-horse rock team, belonging to Ezekiel Doe and hauling for H. O. Girdly & Co., was driving along the bluff at the North-end, near Law's stable, when the sled slipped and went over the bank, dragging horses and driver. The whole business piled up in great confusion at the bottom of the almost perpendicular bank, a fall of forty feet. The sled was wrecked, but strange to say neither horses nor driver were much hurt and were at work again in the afternoon. It was a singular escape.

We are called upon this week to record another quarry accident. Saturday morning, about nine o'clock, John Fitzgerald, quarryman in the Doherty quarry, fell from a bluff where he was drilling a "squib," and striking on the rock ten feet beneath, broke his neck. Nobody saw him as he fell, but when he was shortly after picked up life had gone. He had been standing on a board on the icy rock and its slipping doubtless caused the accident. The body was carried to his home near the head of Pleasant street, and a surgeon summoned, but no help could be rendered, neither was a coroner's inquest deemed necessary. Mr. Fitzgerald was a native of County Cork, Ireland, and came to this country about 40 years ago. He was a man of excellent character and liked and respected by all who knew him. Three grown children survive him. His age was about 65. The funeral was held Monday morning at St. David's (Catholic) church.

A reporter of THE COURIER-GAZETTE was rapidly whirled up to the stock farm of Spear Bros. one day last week, and enjoyed a look at the pigs in their winter quarters, where they seemed to be enjoying themselves amazingly, judging from the cooing grunts with which they greeted the reporter, as he scratched them on their backs and inquired particularly after their health. In the various pens inside the long, low building are 53 line looking pigs—Berkshires, Improved Chesters, Chesters and Poland Chinas. The head of the Berkshires, as we have before recorded, is the famous boar "Riverside Sambo," a magnificent specimen of animated pork, who has held his position with much distinction, but who in the near future is to give place to the boar "Rockland," which came from Maryland last spring, and is in every way worthy to take Sambo's place. The "Duke of Cleveland," a pure blooded boar of the Improved Chester variety heads that breed, and is an unusually fine specimen. These two breeds of pigs in the future are to receive the special attention of Spear Bros., they believing them to possess the very best points for these parts. During the past week they have received four Chesters from Cleveland, and four more from Chetara County, Pa., all of which are handsome looking animals. The pigs this winter are fed on cooked food, which is prepared in the building in a sixty-gallon boiler. The premises are in constant charge of Chas. Davis, who lives close by at the Meadows. The pigs are looking in fine order and show evidence of excellent care. An especially nice looking pair of Berkshires, fall pigs, which are being fattened, bear the distinguished names of COTTER and GAZETTE, and especially caught the reporter's eye. In the henyard, which occupies one end of the building, are some fine looking flocks of hens, Plymouth Rocks, Brahmas and Brown Leghorns, to the number of 75. An immense trio of bronze turkeys claimed admiring attention. The reporter was shown a silo, which Spear Bros. put down last fall on a small scale as an experiment, and which has proved such a success that next season they will build a large one. The ensilage turned out finely, and is much liked by the pigs, which will leave other food to eat. The reporter chewed up a bit of the ensilage which was proffered him, finding it much like raw corn-krit and by no means unpleasant to the taste. Spear Bros. have had their stock farm in operation now about ten months and are well pleased with their success. Certain barometrical indications which may be relied upon with reasonable certainty, assure them of an increase of at least 150 pigs in the spring.

MEN AND WOMEN.

Personal Paragraphs of More or Less Interest to Our Readers.

N. T. Cobb is in Boston. W. S. White starts for New York today. W. W. Case has gone to Montreal where he will enjoy the winter carnival.

Miss Clara M. Farwell of this city and Mrs. L. M. Stevens of Stroudwater, have been appointed by Gov. Noble to represent this state in the women's department of the world's industrial exhibition, which is held in New Orleans in 1885.

C. U. Keen has gone on the road in the employ of the wholesale grocery house of John Bird & Co., taking the place of Will M. Bird, who is needed as salesman in the store. Mr. Keen has had fifteen years experience in groceries and will make a valuable man for this position.

Lebanon Howard, a well-known aged citizen, died yesterday morning. He had been sick for some time with cold, and was recovering when he suffered a relapse, inducing pneumonia. He was an excellent gentleman, respected by all. He leaves a wife and several grown-up children. The funeral is held Thursday afternoon.

A pleasing letter from Chas. P. Trepanier shows us that he is prospering in his new home at Grand Forks, Dakota, the drug firm of Trepanier Bros. doing a flourishing business. He adds that the other day he met J. C. Pottle, formerly in business at the South-end in this city, now doing well at Reynolds, Dakota, where he has charge of the grain elevator. The town was named for the temperance lecturer Reynolds of Bangor.

Two months ago we recorded an accident of the venerable Peter Hall, who fell on the ice and broke a hip. Since then he has gradually faded in health, and died last Wednesday. He survived his wife and a family of eight children. He was a worthy citizen and was one of the earliest deacons of the First Baptist church, an office which he held at his death. His age was 88. The funeral was held Saturday, Rev. Mr. Roberts officiating.

Establishment & Eaton's Hides and Cows, best in the market, only 5 cts. each at C. F. Haven's.

An Only Daughter Cured of Consumption.

When death was hourly expected, all remedies having failed, Dr. H. J. Jones was experimenting with the many herbs of California, he accidentally made a preparation which cured his only child of Consumption. His child is now in this country, and enjoying the best of health. He has proved to the world that Consumption can be positively and permanently cured. The Doctor now gives little time to medicine, asking two 2-cent stamps to pay expenses. This Herb also cures Bright's Disease, Neuralgia, Rheumatism, and will break up a fresh cold in twenty-four hours. Address CAMDEN & Co., 1,632 Race Street, Philadelphia, naming this paper. 14-3
